A few local restauranteurs, who spent many a night eating BBQ at Wes' back in the day, have teamed up to stoke the fire and breathe new life into the legendary institution that opened its doors in Olneyville, Providence in 1973.

Just like slow-cooked meat, it takes time to get things right. Following months of renovations, Wes's Rib House is officially back in action. The team pledges to maintain Wes' neighborhood feel and unpretentious atmosphere, while delivering the very best barbecue, using only the freshest products and ingredients.

We are proud to continue Wes' tradition of being a beloved spot for finger-licking BBQ cooked over wood, live music, and friendly vibes.
